

Standard 10: Medical Student Selection, Assignment, and Progress

A medical school establishes and publishes admission requirements for potential applicants to the medical education program and uses effective policies and procedures for medical student selection, enrolment, and assignment.

Proposed substantive changes for Element 10.2

CURRENT VERSION (2026-27)	PROPOSED VERSION (2027-28)
10.2 FINAL AUTHORITY OF ADMISSION COMMITTEE The final responsibility for accepting students to a medical education program rests with a formally constituted admission committee. The authority and composition of the committee and the rules for its operation, including voting privileges and the definition of a quorum, are specified in bylaws or other medical school policies. Faculty members constitute the majority of voting members at all meetings. The selection of individual medical students for admission is not influenced by any political or financial factors.	10.2 FINAL AUTHORITY OF ADMISSION COMMITTEE The final responsibility for accepting students to a medical education program rests with a formally constituted admission committee. The authority and composition of the committee and the rules for its operation, including voting privileges, diversity of committee membership, bias-mitigation training of the committee members, and the definition of a quorum, are specified in bylaws or other medical school policies. Faculty members constitute the majority of voting members at all meetings. The selection of individual medical students for admission by the committee is not influenced by political or financial factors.